Binghamton, NY's Annual Antique Show has New Name and Mission

Binghamton Shriners Antique Show

The Southern Tier of New York's main Antique Show looks forward to the second year under its new name and new mission. Formally the Binghamton Sertoma's Million Dollar Antique Show now named the Binghamton Shriners Antique Show was overwhelming well received in 2022 after a two year pause due to Covid and a change in the sponsoring organization. Seventy five booth spaces were occupied by loyal returning dealers as well as many new participants to the show.

Board members from the Shriners Hospitals for Children, Springfield, Mass. as well as the Potentate from the local Kalura Shrine were on hand throughout the show providing information regarding the Hospitals; the mission of this great fundraiser. In August at an Shriners awards dinner in Binghamton, the net proceeds ($2,000) from this event were presented to Stacie Perlmutter, Director of Development for the Shriners Hospitals for Children in Springfield, Mass.

The show annually hosts 75 vendor booths occupied by quality vendors featuring a labyrinth of Estate Jewelry, Early American Furniture, Artwork, Primitives, European and Asian Antiques Crystal, China, Clocks, Porcelain, Pottery, Advertising, Textiles, Oriental Rugs, Coins, Watches, Postcards, Phonographs & Records, Eclectic Oddities, Vintage Collectibles, plus much more.

This year the show dates are April 15-16, 2023 and the Event will be held once again SUNY Broome Ice Arena at 907 Upper Front St., Binghamton, NY. Show hours will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission will be $8 per person.
